- (3) Sri. K. N. Narayanaswami.

- (5) ~~Usmansait Sahib Bahadur~~ Oosmansait Sahib Bahadur.

As Sri T. Mareppa was reported to be irregular in atten-the meetings. She has expressed her inability to serve on the Committee. In any case she has left Bellary. The Sub Divisional Magistrate, Bellary, reports that no other lady is coming forward to serve on the Committee. I therefore recommend that Sri.

(2) above: The D.M. reports that Sri K.N. Narayanaswami has failed to attend three consecutive meetings of the Committee. Under rule 22 of the Children Rules, 1940, a non-official visitor to a certified school may be removed from office by the Government for failure to attend three consecutive meetings of the Committee of visitors. The D.M. recommends that Sri N. Thakkerappa, General merchant, Bellary, may be appointed in his place. Attention is invited to the portion marked 'M' in the notes on p. 15 of G.O. No.3997, Home, dated 25.6.41, and also to the memo. No.15402 G-1, dated 9.6.41. 2. Proposals <sup>6-</sup>for filling up the vacancies ~~have~~ reached Government (22.7.42), more than a month after expiry of the term of office of the four members. It may, however, be observed that under rule <sup>22</sup>of the Children Rules ~~22~~ the C.I. bb-7-30-24 has to take action on a report from the Headmaster in regard to the failure of a member to attend three consecutive meetings. In ~~this~~ case there might have been correspondence between the D.M. and the C.I. in regard to Sri Narayanaswami's failure to <sup>attend</sup>~~submit~~ three consecutive meetings which might have contributed to the delay in submitting the proposals.
